4. Action Agenda:

Action Item 1:

At the July 2011, meeting the Commission established an Ad Hoc committee to review and study the impact of pimping, pandering and human trafficking as gang related activity in the City of San Diego. The Committee was also tasked to review legislation that would impact gang sentencing for involvement in pimping and pandering. The Committee has been tracking the legislation and other activities that are important in dealing with these crimes. The Committee recommends the following actions:

Recommended Action(s):

- a. Consistent with the Commission #1 goal which is: Establish an effective, coordinated, collaboration process to impact gang activity citywide the committee recommends the Commission support the efforts of the County Office of Education along with Grossmont Union High School District and Law Enforcement to educate City School personnel about the on-school campus pimping and pandering through distribution of the Grossmont Union High School District's protocol for reporting suspected recruitment or victims to its members and relevant community organizations.
- b. The Commission's focus for 2011 in its work plan is: (Priority Focus #4) Broaden network to include new partners to work on prevention issues. The Ad Hoc Committee recommends that the Commission maintain communication with the Human Trafficking/CSEC Advisory Council as it relates to the relationship between human trafficking and gangs, and associated criminal activity in the in the City of San Diego, and make recommendations to the Mayor and Council as appropriate.

Action Item 2:

For the past year, an Ad Hoc Committee with members Chair Rosa Ana Lozada, Commissioner Carol Williams, Commissioner Bonnie Dumanis and Commissioner Pepe Cervantes have been supporting Madison High School's Men of Distinction (10 to Succeed Program). The group has been included in the Bullying Webinar by Prevention Institute. It is now a new school year and San Diego City Schools has numerous opportunities for the Commission to support and be involved in. A new Ad Hoc Committee should be established to evaluate projects and bring a recommendation back to the Commission.

Recommended Action: Establish a new Ad Hoc Committee to evaluate San Diego Unified School District community projects and events and make recommendations to the Commission regarding these efforts.

Action Item 3:

Each year the Commission updates its Workplan and reports to the City Council's Public Safety and Neighborhood Services. This year the report will be in December. An Ad Hoc Committee needs to be established to update the workplan.

Recommended Action: Establish an Ad Hoc Committee to work on the Workplan with staff for presentation to the City Council's Public Safety and Neighborhood Services. A draft will be presented to the Commission at its November meeting for approval.
